

Lynne Jones, CCP – Director At Large, Co-Chair of Programs Committee

Lynne Jones is a compensation consultant with many years of human resources experience to include employment and staffing, employee relations, payroll and compensation management. She is currently employed with Clarian Health Partners. Prior to her current position, Lynne was the Director of Compensation for American United Life Insurance and prior to that worked for 20 years in the financial services sector. Her responsibilities have included human resources project management, mergers, acquisitions and divestitures, development of base pay, incentive and total compensation strategies and performance management systems and HRIS implementations and process improvements.

Lynne has attended IUPUI and the University of Indianapolis. She holds the Certified Compensation Professional (CCP) certification and has been a publications editor for the World at Work Association. Professional affiliations include being a member of World at Work and the Society for Human Resources Management. She is also involved as a parent advocate with the Dyslexic Institute of Indiana.